

I urge you not to weaken the DO NOT CALL protection program. It is a nuisance to receive unwanted calls from persistent sales persons who will not take "No, thank you" for an answer. Unwanted promotional calls can even "lure" someone into a purchase commitment that they may not be able to afford, or create an opportunity to extract personal information from the resident.